FOR students in Kindergarten, First & Second Grades

Spring Hill Loves to Read!

Where do you like to read? Under a tree? In a hammock? With your pets? Show us just how much YOU love to read by finding a creative place to read over Spring Break and have someone snap your picture!

Fill out the front of this form, glue your picture to it, and return it to Spring Hill by Friday, April 8th, 2016.

All pictures will be posted for viewing around the school!

Please direct any questions to

Reading Teacher, Janis Lefcourt, at Janis.lefcourt@fcps.edu or Librarian, Janet Hugger, at Janet.Hugger@fcps.edu
Look Who Got Caught Reading!!

I, ______________________, in ____________________

Glue your 4x6 picture here!

Your name

Your teacher’s name

class was caught reading the book

____________

Title of book

over Spring Break. I read the book

________________________________________

________________________________________

________________________________________

Location where book was read