2015 SUMMER READS NONFICTION BOOK REPORT
GRADES 3-6

Student's Name: ________________________________________________________

Book Title: _____________________________________________________________
Example: Water Pollution

Author: _______________________________________________________________
Example: Rhonda Lucas Donald

List the main or most important facts you found:
Example: Farmer's chemicals get into the soil and pollute the ground water

1. ________________________________________________________________

2. ________________________________________________________________

3. ________________________________________________________________

4. ________________________________________________________________

5. ________________________________________________________________

New words:
Write 2 words and their definitions in the space below.

1. ___________________________________________________________________
   ___________________________________________________________________

2. ___________________________________________________________________
   ___________________________________________________________________

Circle your response-answer:
This book was read for finding information (research) or fun?
Did you learn anything new yes or no?

Rate this book    ★ ★ ★ ★ ★