Hey! It's Arola here! Welcome to Arola's Rainbow Loom Bracelets! I love rainbow loom. I hope that with my instructions, you'll know how to make more bracelets!
Beginner Bracelets

Single Bracelet
1. Turn the loom so that the red arrow is facing you.
2. Place the rubber bands in a zigzag pattern along the loom.
3. Starting from the bottom, hook the rubber bands underneath to the forward pin.
4. Put a c-clip on the last rubber band and pull the bracelet off the loom, and attach the other end.

Fishtail Bracelet
1. Turn the loom to the side and pick two pegs.
2. Take a rubber band and twist it in an infinity shape (a sideways eight) and put it on the pegs.
3. Take two more bands and put them on top of the first band.
4. Take your hook and hook the bottom band over the top. Then add one more rubber band to the top. Repeat until wanted length.
Intermediate Bracelets

Rainbow Ladder
1. Make sure that the red arrow is facing away from you.
2. Place a red rubber band on the pin to the right, then a orange one and so on on until the end. Do the same on the right.
3. Place rubber bands horizontally across the pegs, and place some more down the middle.
4. Hook the rubber bands in the middle, and place some more horizontally, and make sure it's the same color.
5. Hook rubber bands at the sides, and take the bracelet off the loom. Create an extension using the single. (See page 1)

Zippy Chain Bracelet
1. Make sure that the red arrow is facing away from you.
2. Take your first color and place it on the first peg to the left and then do it all the way down. Do the same on the right.
3. Then place your rubber bands in an arrow pattern but stop at the last peg and do not put the sides.
4. Hook the border then the arrow pattern. Take the bracelet off the loom, and make an extension using the single. (See page 1)
Expert Bracelets

Totem Pole
1. For this bracelet you will need your loom in a rectangular.
2. Starting from the red pin, make a border all the way around.
3. Next take a rubber band and place it forward, then take four more bands and make a triangular pattern.
4. Do this all the way do the end, and once you've finished, turn the loom so that the red arrow is facing towards you.
5. Take the bracelet off the loom, and make an extension using the single.
   (See page 1)

Starbust
1. Make sure that the red arrow on your loom is facing towards you.
2. Starting from the first pin, take a rubber band and place it forward. Do this all the way until the end.
3. Starting from the third pin, going counter-clockwise, place rubber bands until you get the shape of a star.
4. Put a cap-band on each center of the star. And hook them accordingly.
5. Hook the border, and take the bracelet off the loom.
6. Make an extension using a single.
