Students will be presented with one problem at a time. They will choose an answer by clicking on the number which they feel is the best choice. If they want to change the answer, they may just click on different answer choice. When they are ready to move on, students will click the forward arrow. If they would like to go back and review an answer, they may click the back arrow.

Sample 1:

Sample 2: