WSHS PTSA MISSION
The West Springfield High School (WSHS) Parent Teacher Student Association (PTSA) is an active organization with the primary purpose of advocating for our students and providing support to faculty and parents. This is accomplished through various activities and programs. Currently, fourteen committees touch on all aspects of student life at WSHS, and support the teachers and administration's goal of providing the best education possible, which is the reason US NEWS voted West Springfield High School Top Fifteen Best High Schools in Virginia
